Court Decision Is In Favor of Chas. A. Sulzer

JUNEAU, March 21.—At 10:30 this morning Judge Jennings gave an exhaustive opinion covering some thirty-six pages in the case of election of Delegate from Alaska.

The Court sustained every point made by Attorney General Geo. B. Grigsby, and declared Charles A. Sulzer elected delegate to Congress from Alaska.

In recapitulation, the court ruled that the canvassing board should not have counted the returns from either of the following precincts: Choggingung, Nushagak, Bonfield, Utica, Deering and Vault.

In reference to Attorney Rustgard's pleading in opposition to the election of Sulzer as delegate, the court found that the pleadings disclosed nothing but defects about other returns. Wickersham had 6,490 votes and Sulzer 6,440 votes, counting the above precincts. According to the court's decision, these are thrown out, giving Sulzer a majority of 19 votes.

A remarkable feature of the decision is that every part of Grigsby's opinion given to the canvassing board was upheld by the court.

The general opinion in all political circles here is that the decision is final and that no appeal will be filed in order to carry the fight into congress.

THE PEGGY MAKES 300-MILE CRUISE

C. G. Burnett, A. B. Pennycook, and E. P. Clarke returned Saturday afternoon on the gasboat Peggy from a 300 mile cruise through Frederick sound, Chatham strait, and Summer strait. They report that all the bays along Baronoff island are still frozen up. The following additional items of news were gleaned from a conversation with one of the members of the party.

The Wakefield company is putting in a one-line cannery in addition to its kipped herring plant. The company now has about 5,000 barrels of herring corraled in sein which will be used for halibut bait when the cannery begins operating.

The steamer Curacao came into Port Walter recently with a pile driver and crew to begin work on the salmon cannery and kipped herring plant for the Pacific Mild Curing company.

It is reported that another salmon cannery is to be built at Red Bluff bay.

Captain Morgan, formerly of Wrangell, arrived in Port Walter recently after seven years' absence from Alaska. Captain Morgan was married last year to a lady of the Lone Star state and expects to have her join him soon. He plans to come to Wrangell to live in a few months.

The Peggy got froze in at Port Walter, it being necessary for the crew to chop a way for her to get out.

The cruise lasted nine days. The weather was disagreeably rough all the time, and the trip would not have been a very pleasant one had it not been for the cheering influence of Mr. Pennycook's Scotch songs every evening. It is claimed that Mr. Pennycook lived up to the sentiment of his favorite: "It's nice to get up in the morning, but it's nicer to lie in your bed."

3 AMERICAN SHIPS SENT TO DEPTHS

LONDON, March 20.—The sinking Sunday of the American steamships City of Memphis, Illinois and the Vigilancia was announced here early today by the Admiralty upon receipt of advices from different sections of the English coast.

Forty-nine survivors of the City of Memphis have been picked up off the coast and admiralty steamers are searching for eight more members of the crew who are missing.

The fourth engineer and thirteen men are missing from the steamer Vigilancia making twenty-two men from the two steamers whose fate are still in doubt. The crew of the Illinois landed in their life boats.

The steamship City of Memphis was in ballast and was en route from Cardiff for New York; the Illinois was in ballast from London and was proceeding to Port Arthur, Texas. The Admiralty has made no announcement regarding the passage of the Vigilancia but it is reported that she was also in ballast returning to an American port when sent down. None of the steamers had others than the crews aboard, according to all information obtainable.

YOUR GOVERNOR

The Theme at St. Philip's Church, Sunday, March 25

Is it true that most of the acts of our lives are prompted by customs and influences outside of ourselves? If so, who is it and what is it that furnish these influences? It is up to each man to choose. He cannot escape.

The sermon Sunday evening will have for its purpose to guide you in making that choice. Do not forget the place and time: St. Philip's church, Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m.

Lloyd Myers returned to Juneau on the Dolphin.

THE RUSSIAN MONARCHY IS NOW REPUBLIC

DEVELOPMENTS IN RUSSIA

Czar abdicates in favor of 12-year old son Alexis.

Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovich is regent.

New cabinet chosen with Prince Lvoff, president.

Order restored throughout the nation.

Populace supports new administration.

Notables of old regime are imprisoned.

Russia changed from a monarchy to a republic.

PETROGRAD, March 20.—The most remarkable feature of the Russian revolution is the speed with which the people have resumed normal life after less than a week of internal strife.

The Provisional government has issued the following appeal to the citizens:

The executive committee of the Duma, with the aid and support of the garrison of the capital and its inhabitants, has succeeded in triumphing over the obnoxious forces of the old regime in such manner that we are able to proceed to a more stable organization of executive power with men whose political activity assures the country's confidence. A new cabinet will base its policy on the following principles:

First—Immediate and a general amnesty for all political and religious offenses, including the terrorist's act, military agrarian offenses.

Second—Liberty of speech and of the press and a freedom for all alliances of unions, with the extension of these liberties to military officials within the limits admitted by military requirements.

Third—The abolishment of all social, religious and national restrictions.

Fourth—To proceed forthwith to the preparation and convocation of a constitutional assembly, based on universal suffrage which will establish a governmental regime.

Fifth—The substitution of police by a national militia with a chief to be elected and who will be responsible to the government.

Sixth—Communal elections to be based on universal suffrage.

Seventh—The troops which participated in the revolutionary movement will not be disarmed but will remain in Petrograd.

Eighth—While maintaining a strict military discipline for the troops on active service, it is desirable to abrogate for the soldiers all the restrictions in the enjoyment of social right acceded to other citizens.

The provisional government desires to add that it has no intention to profit by the circumstances of the war to delay the realization of the measures above mentioned.

In Discussion of Peace Terms Spirit of Hatred Must Be Repressed

By Viscount BRYCE, Famous
English Statesman

WHEN the terms of the peace treaty come up for discussion the people will insist on expressing an opinion. In order to express an opinion they must form an opinion, and the churches must do their part in helping them to do it. With regard to the making of peace Englandmen must repress the spirit of hatred. Is it wise to talk of banning a whole people for all time to come? The German people themselves must learn the truth about the war. To indulge in revenge would be to sow the seeds of future wars. Nations could not hate one another forever. Serious terms might have to be imposed on the foe, but they ought not to be imposed in any spirit of hatred. It has been suggested that after peace has been concluded a new war of trade is to follow the war of arms. The proposal has immense capacities for mischief.

SUCH A TRADE WAR WOULD PROLONG AND ENMITTER AFRESH THOSE HATREDS THAT OUGHT TO BE ALLOWED TO DIE.

Limitation of Debate In the Senate Would Result In Unwise Legislation

By WILLIAM M. CALDER, Senator
Elect From New York

THERE are a great many people in this world who in trying to cure an admitted evil create or inflict a still greater evil. This seems to me to apply to the limitation of debate in the senate. We have got along these good many years without cutting off discussion, and if at times senators have been known to abuse the patience of their colleagues and of the country by holding the floor for days in an effort to block legislation the evil is negligible compared to the great harm that would inevitably result from the application of a rule of closure.

OF ALL PLACES IN THE WORLD WHERE IT WOULD BE UNWISE TO LIMIT DEBATE THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES HOLDS THE PRE-EMINENT POSITION.

There should not only be reasonable debate about every question, but no vote should be forced there without the fullest debate and every opportunity to every senator to present all the arguments at his command. Because now and then some one for purposes of obstruction fails to confine himself to argument, that cannot be advanced as a reason for CURTAILING THE RIGHTS OF HIS COLLEAGUES

W. M. CALDER.

WRANGELLSETAM LAUNDRY

Religion, Withstanding Cynicism, Has Survived Through the Ages. Go to Church.

A GREAT number of the people who GO TO CHURCH are men and women with the WISDOM OF YEARS AND EXPERIENCE. Many young people who seem to REJOICE WHEN THEY ARE CALLED CYNICS not only fail to GO TO CHURCH, but flippantly refer to the movement.

One great writer said, "WHO ARE A LITTLE WISE THE BEST FOOLS BE." Another said, "A LITTLE LEARNING IS A DANGEROUS THING." Churches have survived through the ages. One hates to think what would become of this world without churches and religion. The churches TEACH RIGHT-EOUSNESS. And yet there are some young people who are disposed to take lightly this splendid GO TO CHURCH movement. Happily they are in the great minority, and it is certain that they will soon be moved by the AWAKENING OF RELIGION over the land. In many churches in the west preachers report a SPLENDID ATTENDANCE OF YOUNG PEOPLE.

THE DAY IS GONE WHEN IT CAN BE SAID THAT THE CHURCH IS ALL RIGHT FOR OLD WOMEN AND CHILDREN. GO TO ANY OF THE GREAT CITIES IN THE COUNTRY AND NOTE THE REAL BIG MEN, THE MEN YOU'D LIKE TO KNOW, AT DIVINE SERVICE. THEY ARE PROUD TO BE SEEN IN CHURCH. NO, INDEED, THE CHURCH IS NOT FOR THE OLD AND THE WEAK. IT IS FOR THE YOUNG AND STRONG. IT IS FOR EVERYBODY, FROM THE HIGHEST TO THE LOWEST. PRESIDENT WILSON HAS EMPHATICALLY GIVEN HIS APPROVAL TO THE GO TO CHURCH MOVEMENT.

If you are one of the young men who has been reached by the GO TO CHURCH appeal and now regularly attend church, you are to be commended. But you can do more. You can induce that friend of yours who is inclined to cynicism to join the GO TO CHURCH throng. Argue with him. Plead with him. Show him the right way. If you do this, you'll be doubly rewarded.

Get him to GO TO CHURCH next Sunday.

Get him to GO EVERY SUNDAY.

FLAWLESS EMERALDS.

Perfect Stones of Over Four Carats Are Almost Priceless.

The National museum in Washington has a fine collection of emeralds, one of the most valuable of precious stones. It includes some forty specimens of both cut and uncut stones. Mineralogically, the emerald, together with aquamarine, goshenite, davidsonite and morganite is a variety of beryl, a mineral species which crystallizes in six sided prisms varying from beautiful green through light blue, yellow and white to rose color. The emerald is rich green in color, but otherwise similar in hardness and physical properties to the other forms. Compared with most gems, however, it is soft, being only slightly harder than quartz.

Unfortunately it is seldom free from flaws, and were this not the case an emerald would be of greater value, carat for carat, than the diamond. Today a good diamond is worth from about $250 to $400 per carat, according to its purity and size, while an emerald varies from $350 to $500, increasing very rapidly with size. Flawless emeralds weighing more than four carats are among the rarest of jewels, a perfect stone of four carats being practically priceless, whereas a diamond would only bring from $1,000 to $2,000. The great demand and restricted supply of emeralds, together with the fact that they are very hard to imitate, have forced their cost to a height which puts large stones of good quality beyond the reach of all but the very wealthy.

The crystals are simple in form, merely hexagonal prisms attached at one end to the matrix, with usually a flat face at right angles to its axis on the other end. They are invariably flawed, so much so that "a flawless emerald" has become a proverbial expression for unattainable perfection. The largest single crystal, said to weigh 934 ounces, is in the possession of the Duke of Devonshire, but the division of mineralogy of the National museum at Washington has an excellent specimen from Stony Point, Alexander county, N. C., which weighs 834 ounces or over 1,200 carats and is the largest ever found in the United States.

Among the specimens is a section of an uncut crystal from Muzo, Colombia, South America, collected by Dr. Joseph E. Pogue, former assistant curator in the division of mineralogy of the National museum. This contains a flaw composed of carbonaceous matter, which appears in cross section as a six rayed star centering, at the axis of the crystal, in a small hexagonal prism. It is a very unusual form and is believed to be unique in museum specimens.

Origin of the Red Cap of Liberty.

The red cap of Liberty had a very prosaic origin. Instead of being the Phrygian bonnet it is just the galley slave's headgear. The Swiss of the Chateaux regiment sent to the galleys for their share in the Nancy riots were released and came into Paris with the red caps still on their heads. "They are the victims of despotism," said the people, forgetting the circumstances of the riot, and so the red cap became the favorite with the extreme party.—London Globe.

An Amiable Maniac.

Australia once possessed an amiable maniac who had a pleasant little habit of getting on a train on Sunday and pulling the bellcord as soon as the train started. She—it was a lady—would then explain to the infuriated railway officials that Providence had given her special powers to stop all trains traveling on Sundays.

An Official Mystery.

Years ago, when Lord Anglesey was lord lieutenant of Ireland, he said once of the Irish secretary of that day, "Mr. Stanley and I do very well together as companions, but we differ so totally about Ireland that I never mention the subject to him." Just how they transacted official business remains a mystery.

Management.

"I don't see, Ella, how you manage with your housekeeping money. If I give you a lot you spend a lot, but if I don't give you so much you seem to get along with it."

"Why, that's perfectly simple, Rudolph. When you give me a lot I use it to pay the debts I get into when you don't give me so much."

Subterfuge.

Wheedle—I say, Jack, what is the name of the club you've joined?

Guifer—The "Office."

"Isn't that rather an odd name?"

"Not at all. You can tell the wife that you were detained at the 'office' without any pricking of conscience."—London Telegraph.

SADNESS OF A LEGISLATOR IS FELT IN HOUSE

(Juneau Empire)

A spirit of sadness and reflection on higher things pervaded the session of the House of Representatives this morning when Speaker Hess announced that the infant son of Peter C. McCormack had passed away this morning at Wrangell. The announcement produced a sense of sympathy among the members and after the session they gathered around the bereaved member and offered condolences.

Speaker Hess stated: "I am greatly grieved to announce that one of our member's Mr. McCormack, has received word of the death of his infant son this morning and desires that this body excuse him from further attendance until next Monday. Unless there is some objection, I shall hold that it is the unanimous consent of this body that Mr. McCormack be allowed to leave tomorrow afternoon on the Humboldt for Wrangell and return as soon as possible."

Resolution of Condolence

Whereas, Mr. Jack Myers, who had been elected to become a member of this lodge by initiation; and lost his life before he had the opportunity to present himself for initiation; therefore be it

Resolved, That we mourn his loss as deeply as if his name had been enrolled on our roster, and the sincere sympathy of the entire membership of Wrangell Lodge No. 866 Loyal Order of Moose, is hereby extended to our Brother Lloyd Myers, and his two bereaved sisters.

FUNERAL OF SAM WALLACE

The funeral of Sam Wallace, who died suddenly on the night of March 12, was held in the Redmen's hall Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Wallace was a communicant in the Episcopal church, and the funeral service was read by Rev. H. P. Corser, rector of St. Philip's church. In addition to the ritualistic service Rev. Corser made a short address.

Mr. Wallace was a life member of Kalispell Lodge No. 725, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, at Kalispell, Montana. There being no lodge of Elks in Wrangell it was not permissible for the beautiful ceremony of their ritual to have a part in the obsequies.

However, at the request of the local Elks, J. W. Pritchett, representing the Elk fraternity, made a few remarks following the address by Rev. Corser.

The following Elks, wearing the purple and white colors of their organization, acted as pall bearers: Mayor J. G. Grant, W. R. Hillery, J. E. Worden, B. Y. Grant, C. M. Coulter, Dr. C. A. Emery.

The local Elks regretted that owing to the absence from town of C. G. Burnett, a loyal member of the order, he was unable to be present at the funeral.

The services were concluded at the grave by Rev. Corser. The Alasco and the Diamond C were used in transporting those who attended the service at the grave.

Letter of Sympathy

To the bereaved daughters, brother and other relatives of our late Brother Sam L. Wallace:

The faults of our brothers we write upon the sands; Their virtues upon tablets of love and memory.

This beautiful and sincere thought is deep within the hearts of all Elks who knew Brother Wallace.

The Grand Exalted Ruler of the Universe has seen fit to call this Brother from our presence. We knew him to be loyal to all Brother Elks; sincere in his desire to aid those in distress and with an undying love and devotion for the B. P. O. E.

His Brother Elks at Wrangell, Alaska, extend their deep sympathy to you who mourn, and in lieu of formal resolutions we place our signatures to this inadequate expression of our sympathy.

J. G. Grant, Juneau No. 420.
W. R. Hillery, Skagway No. 431.
J. E. Worden, Juneau No. 420.
J. W. Pritchett, Skagway No. 431.
B. Y. Grant, Juneau No. 420.
C. M. Coulter, Juneau No. 420.
C. A. Emery, Juneau No. 420.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our sincere thanks to our friends for their floral offerings and other many kindnesses extended at the time of the death of our beloved brother, Mr. Sam L. Wallace.

The kind offices on the part of the members of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks was a beautiful reminder of their creed: "Living or dead an Elk is never forgotten; never forsaken."

MR. AND MRS. H. J. WALLACE.

Formal announcement of the wedding of Miss Fanny Schmidt and Mr. John Hogstrom states that Mr. and Mrs. Hogstrom will be at home after April first at Atascadero, San Luis Obispo county, California.

FUNERAL OF BABY MCCORMACK

The funeral of Ronald Leonard, the infant son of Hon. and Mrs. P. C. McCormack, occurred in the Catholic church at 230 Saturday afternoon.

The funeral rites were conducted by Rev. Father J. Crimont, prefect apostolic of Alaska, who came to Wrangell from Juneau to attend the funeral solemnities. In addition to the ritualistic ceremony Father Crimont made a short but very impressive address. His words were full of love and tenderness, and could not have been other than soothing and comforting to the bereaved parents.

At intervals during the service by the priest Mrs. W. H. Warren sang three selections which were very appropriate and most beautifully rendered. They were: "Veni Jesu, Amor Mi," "Ave Sanctissima," and "Lead Kindly Light."

Four small boys acted as pall bearers. They were: Lenny Engstrom, George Case, James Wheeler and John Grant.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our sincere thanks to those who showed so many acts of kindness and spoke words of sympathy during the illness and at the death of our infant son, Ronald Leonard; especially do we appreciate the many beautiful floral offerings.

Gratefully,

MR. AND MRS. P. C. MCCORMACK.

FATHER CRIMONT HELD SERVICE AFTER MIDNIGHT

Rev. Father Crimont, prefect apostolic of Alaska, who came to Wrangell from Juneau to officiate at the funeral of Baby McCormack, returned on the Dolphin which sailed at 4 o'clock Sunday morning.

Father Crimont had hoped that the steamship schedule would permit of his remaining in Wrangell until noon Sunday in order that he might hold services Sunday morning.

When it became known that the Dolphin would reach Wrangell before day a service was arranged to begin immediately after midnight, the parishoners being very glad to go to the slight inconvenience necessary in order to have the service.

The regular Sunday morning service was held between 12:30 and 1:30 a. m. and was well attended. Father Crimont preached a short but impressive sermon on the significance of St. Patrick's day and the life of the saint himself.

Wrangell Girl Is Praised

(Chemawa [Oregon] American) Annie Loftus of Wrangell, Alaska, spoke on the happy feeling that people usually had on the anniversary of their birth, especially children, and that in celebrating birthdays of institutions the older they were the more extensive the celebration, and in celebrating the 37th birthday of Chemawa the student should feel particularly happy in that the older an institution the better work it does. Chemawa by reason of its age is doing better work, that growth means advancement, that she is proud of her school, and that all should be loyal and true to its highest and best ideals. Annie Loftus is now a high school student in Salem, and is one of Chemawa's most dependable products.

There was a good attendance at the Moose lodge Friday evening. Three candidates were initiated. They were Harry Coulter, Ellery Carlson, Charles Moberg.
